

BRIEF LOCALS.

Clark Hitt is now located in Tempe.

Eight inches of snow fell Thursday night.

C. H. Schulz came in from Coconino Basin yesterday.

Babbitt Bros. shipped 300 head of cattle from Angell to Kansas this week.

A meeting of the board of supervisors has been called for Monday, February 21st.

Alfred Averyt has sold an interest in his business at Big Bug to G. M. Garrett.

Probate Judge Layton issued a marriage license Sunday to Joseph A. Ward of Winslow and Florella Remington of Williams.

Mrs. S. N. Ewing, a teacher of a new process of painting, is stopping at the Carroll house and invites the ladies of Flagstaff to call and see her.

According to the junior editor of the Gem the projectors of the proposed water supply for Flagstaff will give us an abundance of a good quality of ditch water.

R. C. Jones announces himself as a candidate for the office of town clerk. Dick is known to everyone in Flagstaff, and needs no introduction to the readers of THE SUN who are voters at the town election.

The remaining lands of the old Atlantic and Pacific land grant, forming a part of the assets of the corporation, will be sold on March 9 in Prescott. The lands lie mainly in Mohave, Navajo and Apache counties, and embrace about 1,500,000 acres, ranging from dense forest lands to bare desert. The Santa Fe company will undoubtedly purchase the land.

Mr. E. L. Clancey and Miss Mary Verschelden were married in St. Marys, Kans., on the 14th instant. The happy couple arrived here Thursday and will make their home in Flagstaff. THE SUN extends congratulations.

It is reported that Messrs. Cameron and Berry have been offered a handsome sum for their mine in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. The sale is to include the trail and their hotel on the rim of the canyon.

Preaching at the Methodist church tomorrow morning. Subject of discourse, "The Law of Life." Prof. George will conduct a sacred song service in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited to attend these services.

Don't fail to attend the colonial concert at Babbitt's hall on the night of the 22d, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society, for the benefit of the Methodist church. Admission 50 cents. Lunch served after the concert at 25 cents.

The third of the course of church lectures on the reformation will be delivered Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. There will be special music. In the evening there will be union service at the Methodist church. Rev. H. P. Corser.

The Woodmen of the World intend giving the ball of the season. New masquerade costumes have been ordered and the committee of arrangements have secured the services of the Fort Wingate military band, which has the best orchestra in the west.

I. T. Wheeler announces this week that he will enter the race for the office of town marshal. He is off on a trip to the Grand Canyon, but will be back next week to begin an active canvass for the office he seeks. Mr. Wheeler has the kind of stuff in him to make an excellent marshal.